Frank Schrepfer Is Commander.
Charles Greyer Heads Banquet Committee.

MEETING WAS MONDAY

Officers were elected by the Harold D. Speakman Post, No. 356, American Legion, of Narberth, at its annual election held at the Legion room of the Community Building, Windsor Avenue, Monday night. They are:

Frank A. Schrepfer, commander; Dr. A. J. Denman, senior vice commander; William H. Durbin, junior vice commander; John Mowrer, finance officer; Alex J. Betus, adjutant; the Rev. Robert E. Keighton, chaplain, and E. O. Mensinger, sergeant-at-arms.

The executive committee is John Nash, A. P. Redifer, Jr., C. H. Greyer, Clifford D. Goodwin and W. W. Fretz.

Lt. Frank Schoble, Jr., national vice commander of the Legion, addressed the men on legion affairs. Plans were made for the post's annual Armistice Day banquet, for which the following committee was selected:

Charles H. Greyer, general chairman; Burgess Henry A. Frye, R. C. Collins, A. P. Redifer, Jr., A. C. Betus, Walter Miesen and John Nash.

Officers Elected By Church Bowlers

Charles Haist Is President.
Change System of Figuring Handicaps.

SEASON STARTS OCT. 3

Officers were elected and plans made for the new season by the Narberth Church Bowling League at a meeting held in the Lutheran Church here Monday night. The season will start next Friday at 8:45 P. M. in the Ardmore Recreation Center.

The officers are: Charles Haist, president; Daniel Lacey, vice president; Ellsworth Riley, treasurer, and H. B. Murray, secretary.

At the close of the 1930-1931 bowling season, a number of extra prizes will be given the teams, it was announced. There will be a change in the method of figuring handicaps: instead of using the single man's handicap system, the team's handicap, based on the total averages of each man in the team, will be computed.

It is expected that the schedule for the first half of the season, and averages of the bowlers for last year, will be published in "Our Town" next week.

Bake Sale Planned

A bake sale will be held next Saturday, October 4, by the Narberth Parent-Teachers' Association. Further details will be announced next week.

Commuters to Use New Station Sunday

Pennsy Announces Plans For Use of Improved Subur- ban Facilities.

With the fall change in timetables, on Sunday, the Broad Street Suburban Station, at Sixteenth Street, Pennsylvania Boulevard and the Parkway, and the Thirtieth Street Station, at Thirtieth and Arch Streets, in Philadelphia, will be opened for service.

These two new stations will be used by all suburban electric trains except certain designated trains which will run into the present Broad Street Station during the week-day morning peak hours of 8 and 9 A. M.

Broad Street Station and West Philadelphia Station will be retained for steam trains running in and out of Philadelphia, except that Maryland division steam trains will make the stop at Thirtieth Street Station instead of West Philadelphia Station.

This will turn over to public use the first portion of the Philadelphia improvements. As the work progresses other sections of this gigantic project will be placed in service as they are completed.

The proper designation and locations of the stations affected by the Philadelphia improvements are:

Broad Street Station—Broad and Market Streets.

Broad Street Suburban Station—Sixteenth Street, Pennsylvania Boulevard and the Parkway.

Thirtieth Street Station—Thirtieth and Arch Streets.

West Philadelphia Station—Thirty-second and Market Streets.

Narberth's Sunday Victory Over Paoli Evens Series Championship Standing

Beaten 10-3 in First Game, Champions Battle Hard for Second, 11-9.

FLECK, HECKLES ST A R

By John Uberti.

In the first two engagements of a five-game championship series Narberth, first-half champions and defenders of the Main Line emblem of baseball supremacy, and Paoli, second-half rulers and challengers for the title, shared the victories for the two contests in an eventful week-end double festivity.

Paoli copped the initial fiasco on Saturday in a one-sided game when six runs at the start of the fray found Charles Townsend scurrying to cover as the Westerners out-hit the Davis-men fifteen hits to eight in their 10-3 victory. All the discussions of this week-end diamond show, however, are concentrated on the second game, a continual slugging battle, brimful of bitterness among the fans, and replete with baseball ingenuity, that necessitated ten raging sessions to settle.

Manager "Gene" Davis entrusted all his confidence in Charles Townsend and had him scheduled to start the championship series a week in advance. A rabid throng of two thousand followers were astonished to see Paoli jump on Charles at the very beginning and send him to shelter under a pitiful barrage of six runs. "Gene" Davis sent for Bill Reynolds to repress the visitors and caused the retirement of Potter, premier in the Paoli lineup.

Parent-Teachers Meet Next Monday Evening

The Narberth Parent-Teachers' Association will open its new year next Monday night with a meeting in the school library. The association, which started five years ago as the Mothers' Council, has an enthusiastic membership of more than 200.

Anyone interested in the welfare of the schools is welcomed at the meetings held on the third Monday of each month during the school year. New members may join the roll by the payment of fifty cents as dues, which sum is now due from the old members.

All the teachers are expected to be present Monday night, at which time an informal reception will be given the new principal, William J. Drennen, and Mrs. Drennen. Refreshments will be served.

Evangel Circle to Meet

The first and regular meeting of the Evangel Circle of the King's Daughters will be held at the home of Mrs. R. C. Kennedy, 4 Sabine Avenue, Narberth, on Wednesday, October 1. Each member is earnestly urged to be present.

An Extra Hour's Sleep

Eastern Standard Time will be resumed again throughout the Philadelphia area Sunday morning, September 28, and it will be necessary to turn your time-pieces back one hour if you wish to conform with the schedule of things on Sunday. All church services on Sunday will be in accordance with Eastern Standard Time. Turn your clock back one hour upon retiring Saturday night!

Hundreds Throng New M. E. Church

Dedicatory Services Held This Week, With Special Music.

GIVEN GOOD WISHES

Dedicatory services of Narberth's new Methodist Episcopal Church were well attended this week, not only by Methodists but by members of other churches in the borough. Good wishes were extended the minister, the Rev. Samuel MacAdams, and his congregation on their undertaking, at a community meeting in the church Monday night.

Ministers present included the Rev. John Van Ness, of the Presbyterian Church; Rev. Cletus A. Senft, of the Lutheran Church; Rev. Gibson Bell, rector of All Saints Church, who expressed the conviction that all denominations present at the meeting worship the same God and have essentially the same beliefs, and Rev. Robert E. Keighton, of the Baptist Church of the Evangel, whose talk included the statement that in addition to its regular churchgoers, Narberth also has a large number of "Seventh Day Absentists."

Music for Monday's service was by the choir of All Saints Church, under direction of Organist-Choirmaster David Spratt.

An inaugural organ recital on Tuesday evening featured Ralph Kinder, organist and choirmaster of the Church of the Holy Trinity, Philadelphia, and Miss Ernestine B. Bacon, lyric soprano.

There was a service Wednesday evening, an inaugural banquet last night at 6:30 o'clock and a former pastors' night is to be held this evening at 8 o'clock.

Auxiliary to Meet

The first fall meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian Church will be held on Thursday, October 2, from ten until four. Luncheon will be held at 12:45. The president is looking forward to a full attendance. The work of sewing and surgical dressings for the Presbyterian Hospital will be carried on as before, and the call is very urgent.

Neighbors Protest Lantwyn Lane Dogs

Appear Against Frederick Black
Monday at Narberth Town Hall Hearing.

WALZER SETS $800 BAIL

Frederick Black, 217 Lantwyn Lane, Narberth, was accused of "keeping a nuisance" at a hearing before Magistrate Fred Walzer in the borough's Elm Hall Monday evening on charges preferred by neighbors against the manner in which he kept dogs on his property. The hearing room was crowded.

Squawking chickens in a garage . . . and dogs ranging in number from three to six . . . roving around the neighborhood . . . and objectionable odors . . . such were the complaints made.

George Fortenbacher, 215 Lantwyn Lane, and Walter J. Scott, 219 Lantwyn Lane, appeared as signatories on an affidavit in which the charges were recited. Substantiating them were Burgess Henry Frye, Councilman John R. Hall and Mrs. Ross S. Peck, of 4 Shirley Circle. Other neighbors appeared at the hearing, but were not called on to testify.

Squire Walzer gave Mr. Black until yesterday morning to raise $800 bail, under which he planned to hold him for appearance at Court at Norristown, for violating an act of the State Legislature of 1816, which provided for penalties for "keeping a nuisance." A neighbor offered to go his bond, but was refused, because he did not own property in his own name. As an alternative to being held for Court, Squire Walzer suggested Mr. Black "abate the nuisance."

Local Women to Attend Republican Conference

The Republican Women's Council of Pennsylvania will hold a regional conference at the Hotel Brunswick, Lancaster, Pa., on Tuesday, September 30. Quite a number of representatives of Lower Merion Township and the Borough of Narberth will attend. The speakers of the morning are: Mrs. Nancy C. Long, Mrs. Hannah Derham, Miss Margaret O'Hara, the State President; Mrs. Le Roy Douglass, of Narberth, Mrs. H. De Groot, General H. J. Sherman, of Lancaster County; the Hon. Elwood Turner, of Delaware County; the Hon. Horace Schantz, of Lehigh, and the Hon. W. R. Coyle. A luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock.

The speakers of the afternoon will be the Hon. Robert Lucas, of Washington, D. C., and C. O. Riley, State Secretary of Labor in Harrisburg. Their topic will be "Unemployment."

Officials Join L. M.- Narberth Republicans at Annual Picnic in Gladwyne

Over three hundred attended the annual picnic of the Lower Merion-Narberth Republican Association held at Wilson's Grove, Gladwyne, last Saturday afternoon. Many township and county officials were present, including county Republican leader Charles Johnson.

Talks on national administration and on the need for regularity in politics were made by Congressman Henry Watson, State Senator James Boyd and Mrs. Mabel Kirkbride, State Representative of the Second Legislative district of Montgomery County.

Township Treasurer Peter C. Hess, who played host to the assemblage, introduced the speakers and acted as master of ceremonies. Food served included a thousand ears of corn and baked ham, hot dogs and rolls, potato salad and coffee.

And It Rained

With a low temperature of 50 and a high of 88, a variety of weather styles were in vogue for the week ending Monday. The Main Line continued with its record of super-normal temperatures, 24 degrees of excess being added to the total for the year. Rain to a total of .74 of an inch fell, the greatest amount, .46, being on the 16th.

Women Organizing Fire Company Auxiliary

At a meeting of the committee called at the house of Mrs. Eberhart Mueller on Friday, September 12, it was decided to organize a women's auxiliary to the Narberth Fire Company. The first meeting of the organization will be Monday, October 13, 2:15 P. M. in Elm Hall.

All women in the fire district are cordially invited to be present to find out what this new movement is all about. There will be work for everyone who wishes it and the expenses will be nominal.

Penalty on Taxes After Next Wednesday

Tax Collector Edwin P. Dold this week announced his office hours for the collection of taxes next week. No discount will be allowed on borough taxes after October 1, and a penalty is added to school taxes at the same time.

Mr. Dold's hours at his office in the Narberth National Bank will be as follows:

Tuesday from 8 A. M. to 3 P. M.

Championship Series to Be Resumed Saturday

The third contest of the five-game championship series for the title of the Main Line League will be played at Narberth next Saturday, followed by another Sunday engagement at Rustic Park, Paoli. Defenders of the crown for the past two years, Narberth, first-half champion, has found Paoli a formidable challenger for the tile in this fourteenth diamond classic of the Main Line League. Paoli shows every indication of waging a stubborn fight to carry the flag back to Western soil. Well fortified afield and comprised of a complement of hard-hitting batters, the challengers loom as favorites to clinch the pennant, as they pave the way in batting averages for the clubs for the past two titular encounters, outbating the champions .329 to .311.

Each club now holds a victory, following the outcome of last week's two championship games, and a double victory by either team this week will clinch the flag for the season.

Stranger Within the Gates

The world's eye has been upon the Main Line this week. The national amateur golf championship matches at Merion and the annual horse, hound and cattle show at Bryn Mawr have brought enough people to our Main Street to please even a C. of C. secretary.

Certain business people report increased sales because of this influx of strangers, but more important, so far as business is concerned, is the impression the visitors get of the pike and its adjacent business streets. They are impressed by the beauty of our homes. Are they equally impressed by the beauty of our stores and the facilities that are offered them for necessary shopping?

The man who still "lives in Athensville"—to quote Mr. Bowles—may say that he doesn't give a hoot, by heck, for these strangers within the gates. But the far-sighted merchant will go out of his way to be pleasant to the out-of-towners who enter his shop. The fame of Ardmore, Bryn Mawr, Bala-Cynwyd, Narberth should be dear to every merchant in these towns.

If the horse show visitor, the golf championship spectator can go home with pleasant memories of the towns in which he has paused for lunch, or even to buy a cigar, the merchant responsible for that impression will have helped to build the business reputation of his community—and incidentally will have helped his own cause.

A Stab in the Back That Failed

Panic knows no reason, and Dame Rumor has no mercy. From panic and fear come lynchings, wars and bank runs. This week the Main Line was annoyed by a cloud of rumors directed at the Ardmore Title and Trust Company, one of the oldest banks in the section.

What might well have been a serious thing resolved itself into an expression of a splendid spirit of loyalty—a spirit of which every Main Line resident should be proud.

A scurrilous report was circulated on Sunday last by a Philadelphia sheet all too adept in such things, attacking the integrity of the Ardmore financial institution. The sheet was given away in great quantities where it was expected to do the most harm, and, worst of all, was given space on an Ardmore newsstand.

Since most Main Liners are level-headed, the attack failed of its object completely, and simply served to demonstrate the loyalty of depositors and neighbor banks. As a result, the bank will continue undisturbed to serve the community.

A bank once tested is doubly safe.

Pennsy to Open New Station on Sunday

There will be twelve entrances to the Broad Street Suburban Station. Each of these will be clearly marked so that patrons will experience little or no difficulty in locating them when the station opens. These entrances lead to the concourse of the station.

After Sunday, September 28, all out-bound suburban electric trains will leave Broad Street Suburban Station, stopping at the Thirtieth Street Station. Inbound suburban electric trains will arrive at Broad Street Suburban Station, stopping at Thirtieth Street Station, except certain designated trains which will operate into Broad Street Station, stopping at West Philadelphia Station during the week-day morning peak hours.

The new time-tables will clearly indicate the stations that are to be used by inbound and outbound trains.

Trains from the two west suburban divisions will be operated in and out of Philadelphia as follows:

Main Line electric trains will operate in and out of Broad Street Suburban Station, stopping at Thirtieth Street Station. The steam trains will continue to operate in and out of Broad Street Station, making the usual stop at West Philadelphia Station.

Schuylkill division electric trains will operate in and out of Broad Street Suburban Station, stopping at Thirtieth Street Station, except during the week-day morning peak hours, when certain designated trains arriving in Philadelphia between 8 and 9 A. M. will operate into Broad Street Station, stopping at West Philadelphia Station. Steam trains from these divisions will continue to operate in and out of Broad Street Station, making the usual stop at West Philadelphia Station.

Ticket offices will be open 24 hours daily in the concourse of Broad Street Suburban Station and at Thirtieth Street Station, and also in Broad Street Station and West Philadelphia Station.

Parcel check rooms will be located in the concourse of Broad Street Suburban Station and at Thirtieth Street Station. The parcel room in Broad Street Suburban Station will be open daily except between the hours of 1 and 5 A. M.; applicants for parcels during this period of closing will be able to claim them at the ticket office. The parcel room in Thirtieth Street Station will be open 24 hours daily.

Outbound baggage may be checked at Broad Street Station, Thirtieth Street Station, and West Philadelphia Station, but not at Broad Street Suburban Station.

Inbound baggage will be received and delivered at Broad Street Station, Thirtieth Street Station and West Philadelphia Station, but not at Broad Street Suburban Station.

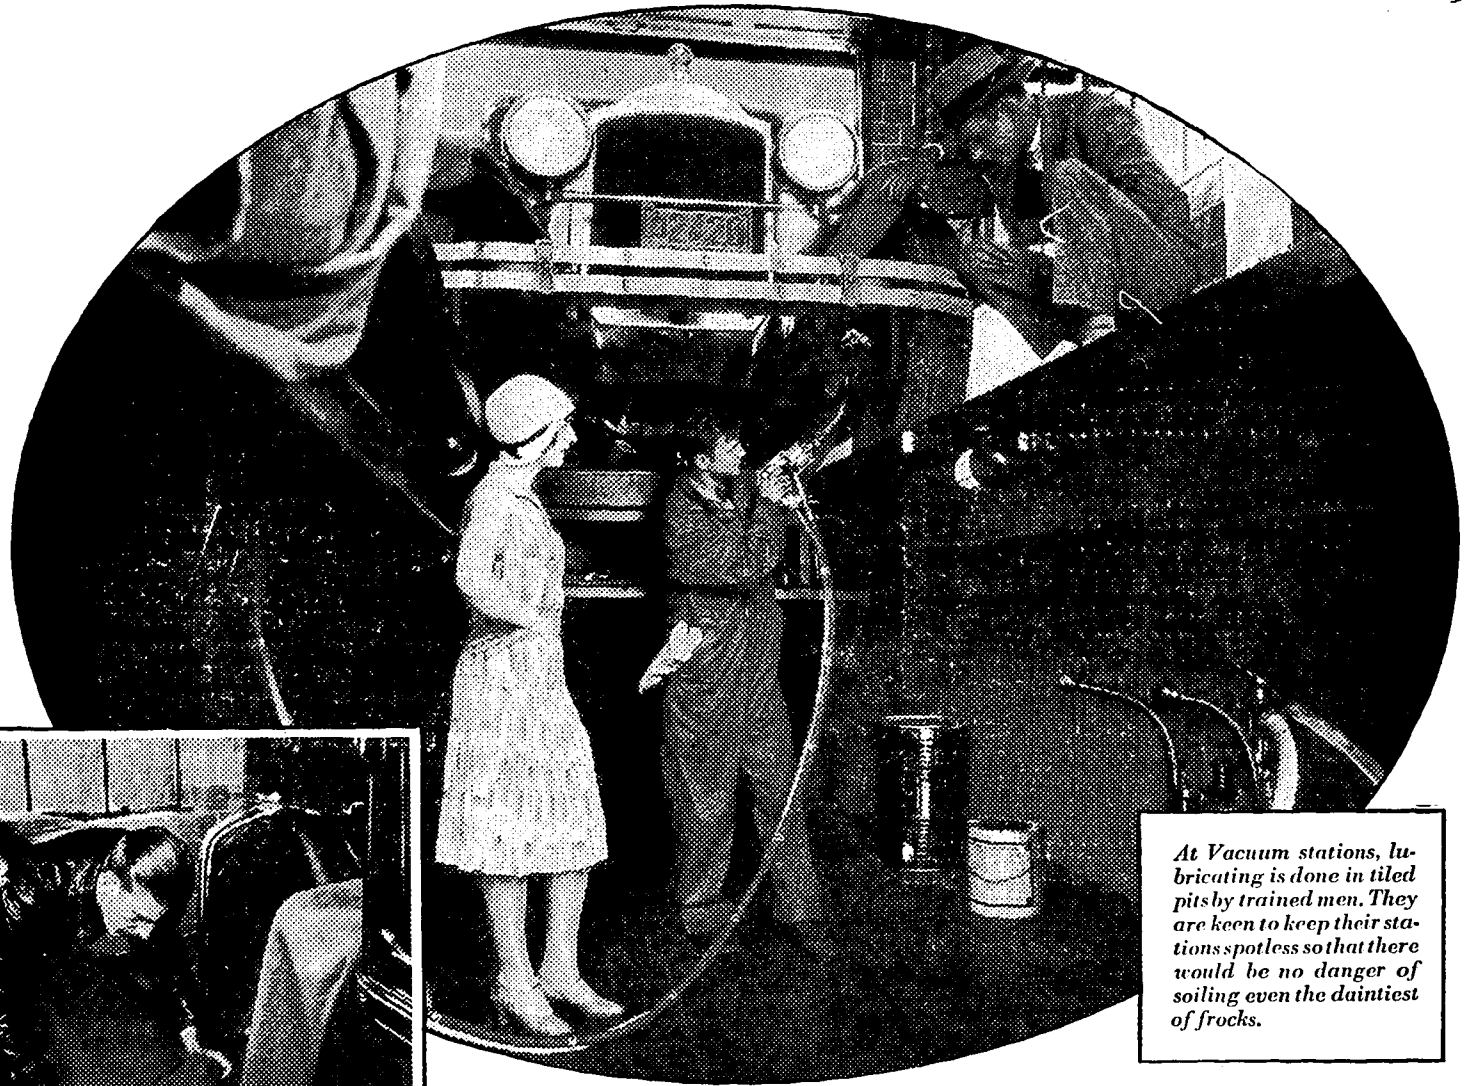

The present inbound and outbound baggage rooms in Broad Street Station are located near the entrances to the Broad Street Suburban Station and will conveniently serve patrons using both stations.

The inbound baggage room is near the stairway on the west side of Fifteenth Street, just south of Pennsylvania Boulevard, leading to and from the Broad Street Suburban Station concourse. The outbound baggage room is near the stairway at the northern end of the Broad Street Station ticket office lobby.

Taxicab stands will be conveniently located at Broad Street Suburban Station and at Thirtieth Street Station.

Thanks Buyers

Thanks to the readers of this paper for the business enjoyed last week-end by the S. and S. Market, Haverford Avenue facing the station, are expressed by the manager, Abe Shoket, who plans to continue a policy of selling fine fruits, produce and sea food at moderate prices.

DAINTY FROCKS ARE SAFE FROM DIRT IN VACUUM'S GREASING PITS

THERE isn't a bit of danger of soiling even the daintiest of frocks in the greasing pits at the Vacuum Service Stations. Tile floors and walls, all machinery inclosed, and a corps of well-drilled attendants that are keen to keep their station spotless, make even greasing pits free of dirt and grime.

Vacuum offers you a system of lubrication which includes not only a special grease or oil for every part of your car, but application according to authorized charts by trained men with the most modern pressure equipment.

When you consider that your car may have over 60 greasing points, each requiring one of seven or eight special kinds of grease, you begin to feel that lubrication service is somewhat of a science. Vacuum's system assures you that every part will be thoroughly lubricated.

And when you bring your car here for greasing, its exposed parts, even to the steering wheel, are protected by specially designed covers while the work is being done.

Give us a chance to show you how we work. It will mean longer life for your car and more pleasant driving for you.

Our gasoline, Mobilgas, is modernized by Vacuum's process of distillation for the car you drive today. Switch to Mobilgas for a week and let your car decide.

Narberth Theatre Notes

"Way Out West," a rollicking comedy with William Haines, Polly Moran and Ukelele Ike in the cast, is playing at the Narberth Theatre this Friday and Saturday.

Greta Garbo and Lewis Stone will appear in "Romance," the story of an operatic star's frustrated love affair, at the Narberth Theatre next Monday and Tuesday. Also on the program will be a new Laurel and Hardy comedy.

Wednesday and Thursday, Paul Whiteman and his symphonic jazz orchestra will appear in "King of Jazz," with several specialty numbers of unusual entertainment appeal. Also on the program is "Killing the Killer," a feature in itself; it is the intensely dramatic and fascinating fight between a cobra and a mongoose, filmed as it actually occurred.

The Narberth Theatre junior matinee, inaugurated last Saturday, met with a large attendance and cordial response; the management states it has received many letters from parents congratulating the theatre in the interest of the children and hoping for a continuation of the programs. The management promises another interesting program for this Saturday. The junior matinee show is carefully selected for the children and parents, and gifts will be presented each boy and girl attending the performance.

The management announces among its coming attractions "Common Clay," October 6, 7 and 8; "Top Speed," with Joe E. Brown, October 10 and 11, and "Dawn Patrol," October 17 and 18.

Egyptian Theatre News

Ann Harding, distinguished stage actress, gives a performance in "Holiday" that has won the unstinted praise of critics and theatregoers. The drama, which loses none of its value as a talking cinema, is playing at the Egyptian Theatre this Friday and Saturday.

This Saturday will see the resumption of children's parties, which under direction of Joseph Conway, managing director of the Egyptian, have proved popular in the past. This week's features include "Song of the Caballero"— a "talkie" with Ken Maynard, great exponent of clean living and outdoor adventure, in the stellar role, and "Terry of the Times"—a serial "talkie" of the adventures of a newspaper reporter.

Next Monday and Tuesday the Egyptian will have "For the Defense," the thrilling drama in which William Powell and Kay Francis have won acclaim for their splendid delineation of their roles.

On Wednesday and Thursday Bebe
Daniels will play her first straight dramatic role as a French maid in "Alias French Gertie"; Ben Lyon, who happens to be her husband, is also starred in this drama.

"Love Among the Millionaires," with Clara Bow, and "Hog Wild," with Laurel and Hardy, will feature the Egyptian's program Friday and Saturday of next week.

Scheduled for presentation the following Monday and Tuesday, October 6 and 7, is one of the outstanding talking pictures of the year, and perhaps of the age—a vivid, thrilling, talking picturization of Admiral Richard Byrd's Antarctic expedition in Little America and his flight over the South Pole.

Daughters of 1812 to Meet

The stated meeting of the National Society, United States Daughters of 1812, will be held at the Bellevue-Stratford Thursday, October 2, at 11 o'clock.
Mrs. Robert H. Newbern, regent, will preside. Mrs. Harper P. Sheppard, Pennsylvania State president, will be the guest of honor and speaker. Her subject will be "Dedication of the Door of Unity" at Plymouth, England.

Fall officially arrived this week, despite the continuation of warm weather.
And this Saturday night will see the end of Daylight Saving Time.

Narberth Stages Game Comeback in Second Tilt

Howard Graham, the Narberth hope to hold the rampant Paoli Club in the Sabbath meeting, came through in dazzling style to hang up his third straight mound triumph, and his eleventh of the season. We can candidly state that this game, excluding the fact that it was a championship play, was the most torrid exhibition in which Narberth has participated, the scoring maintaining a fluctuating effect from start to finish.

An encouraging feature behind Paoli's success is the great band of rooters that attend their performances in these bitter conflicts for the league flag. Rustic Park, located about one mile from Paoli, isolated and deprived of convenient transportation, was the scene of the second combat, where 2500 rooters flocked to view the second of a five-game series for the Main Line League title. This is about one thousand more fans than attended the first game at the Narberth park. The baseball populace of Paoli has been greatly affected by the club's spectacular ascension to the second-half title, and, moreover, it has been decidedly stirred with an antagonistic feeling that will take a vast Narberth audience to minimize.

At intervals, in the Sabbath game, Paoli onlookers left their seats in their frenzy and swarmed onto the field in appreciation of a Paoli rally, especially when Verna, the star of the Paoli side of the battle, prodded a bombastic drive into the right-field section to ship in Centrone, and tie the score at 8-all in the ninth and send the game into extra sessions.

And then we have our Vernon Fleck, Vernie to his home folks as well as hero to the borough club, coming to the disc in the tenth, full of fight and esprit de corps, to slam a two-bagger that fell inside of the boundary line in left-field to send in McEntee and ensnare the fuss. Dissatisfied with this one-run lead, Walter (Wally) Heckel made the lead more substantial by adding two more tallies to the count when Fleck and brother Merrit made for the pentagon on his ricocheting swat that swerved over the pitcher's dome and caromed toward the extreme right wing, landing within the right-field line.

Manager Charley Madden introduced Bill Hagey to the audience, in opposition to Graham, and the jeers and knocks that Bill took from the Narberth boys was unprecedented in Main Line League history. At one time the disgruntled Hagey asked the umpire to quiet down those bad boys along the Narberth side, but was formally informed by Umpire Clark, officiating behind the plate, that it was beyond his power to restrain the fans.

First Game

Paoli went to bat first in the Saturday game at Narberth, and, with three hits, three errors and two passes, sent in six gigantic runs that saw the withdrawal of Charley Townsend from the tee, and the insertion of Bill Reynolds, who went in to chalk up the third out for the boroughites. The chagrin that Townsend sensed as he walked off the premises was something new in baseball for the Princeton pitcher, but his drop positively refused to break over the plate.

Potter and Cent one walked at the outset, and Girard forced Centrone at second, W. Heckel to Bob Harris. Verna singled and Potter and Girard cantered over the disc. Verna stole second. On Humphries' fumble of Umbach's roller, Barney easily made first and went all the way around to third on Burns' overthrow to the keystone, Verna counting off the blunder. Tompkins singled. Umbach scored from third on Henry's one-bagger to left and Eachus made first on Wally Heckel's misjudgment of his bounder that also admitted Tompkins home, Henry coming to a stop at third. Noblitt's sacrifice fly was deep enough for Henry to filch the scoring station. Townsend was taken out and Reynolds went to the rescue. Potter batted again this inning, but was ousted by Reynolds, who relayed his bounder to McEntee on first.

When Narberth hacked into the Paoli lead with three runs every sign of a great batting contest was in view, and it seemed that three runs were to be followed by more scoring. However, it was Jimmy Noblitt at the helm and he brought his pals to port after weathering a stormy, threatening gale from the Narberth bats. Humphries walked. Tompkins dropped Burns' fly and on McEntee's double Humphries scored. Fleck kept the famous merry-go-round going in full sway by casting a two-bagger to centre-field to send in Burns and McEntee. However, when he tried to stretch his double into a triple, Eachus nipped him with a speedy assist to Girard on the torrid base. M. Heckel popped up to Umbach in right and Harris struck out.

This mammoth scoring of both clubs at the start was destined to be the deciding issue of the game, for after this Narberth failed to make any use of their six additional hits, while the best Paoli could do with their twelve bingles off Reynolds in his eight-inning ministry was to count four more times with the aid of three more errors. Girard made a perfect steal of the plate in the second when Burns failed to get Umbach on a throw to second. Verna's tally off Tompkins' single raised the alien scoring to eight runs and two more in the finale assured Paoli of a topheavy victory.

Second Game

The Davismen took the lead with little hesitation at the start of the second game at Rustic Park and this lone pointer seemed to continue to expand in value as Paoli failed to counteract until the fourth. In this chukker the hard-slugging Verna tripled to right-field and came in off Tompkins' single.

From the fourth on the backers of their respective clubs went hoarse with a deafening yell of enthusiasm that alternated among the Narberth crowd and the Paoli addicts. A blunder and the sting of Girard's mace enabled Paoli to send in three men in the fifth, while Narberth began to cut into this lead with one point in the resident half.

Narberth began to get into deep water in the sixth as Paoli bunched two doubles and a single to ship in three more runners. Then Narberth, always willing to mix it up, ever plugging along for victory, sent in three in the sixth. M. Heckel bunted and brother Wally strolled. Kearney cuffed a deep double to left that sent in M. Heckel, Wally going to third base. Townsend replaced Thomas in the outfield and fanned in his turn. Graham walked and on Humphries' sacrifice to Umbach, W. Heckel came in swiftly. Mack singled, Kearney coming home and Fleck flied to right.

The champions from Narberth went into the lead before the entrance of the ninth frame by adding three more runs to their score, but Paoli, with Verna hitting consistently, retaliated to send the scoring into a tie again. In the finale, however, Narberth out-scored Paoli three to one and won the fray. Mack popped up to shortstop.

McEntee walked and scored off Fleck's double to left-field. M. Heckel was hit by a wild throw. Manager Madden called Hagey in and sent for Tompkins in right-field to resume the duties on the hill. Davis replaced Tompkins afield.

Tompkins was wild at the start and released a bad one that enabled Fleck and M. Heckel to move up a base. W. Heckel's single to right-field netted the champions two more runs, Fleck and M. Heckel trekking homeward. W. Heckel was declared out for leaving second base too soon on the sacrificial boot of Townsend after Kearney had reached base by virtue of Tompkins' wildness, the ball having struck him on its wild course to the plate.

Main Line School of Music Opens 7th Season

The Main Line School of Music opens its seventh season under the same directors as last season, Florence Leonard, Adolph Vogel and Louisa Hopkins.

Miss Leonard, director of the piano department also, is known not only in Philadelphia, but throughout the country as well for her contributions to piano teaching, especially in connection with "The Etude."

During the past two seasons she has secured valuable advice for students in interviews with such famous artists as George Copeland, Walter Gieseking, Elly Ney, Harold Samuel and Jose Iturbi.

Because of her wide knowledge of methods and teachers she has been selected by the editor of "The Etude" to prepare a series of papers on the history of pianoforte methods. These will appear during the coming season.

One of her most valuable services to piano teaching has been, in collaboration with Louisa Hopkins, to adapt to the child and beginner the most modern ideas in the study of piano technique.

Think!

Fall, with its social activities and business opportunity, is upon us. Let us think for a moment.

Last year everyone was looking through pink glasses. This year everyone is looking through blue glasses. If you will look through plain glasses you will see:

That American business as a whole is about 91 per cent. normal; that employment is about 95 per cent. normal; that retail sales are about 97 per cent. of last year; that grocery sales are practically the same as last year.

It is easy to worry, but better to think. Let us look about us and see the prosperity and beauty of this Main Line of ours. Where we find business below par, let us stimulate it; where real estate is stagnant, let us save our pennies for finer homes. The man of vision and courage wins every time.

Good Material Turning Up For Maroon Eleven; Three Teams Working Out Daily

By Robert McNally

Coach Albert Adam, former Bates and Springfield football star, is going to give Lower Merion another successful season in a football way, if the signs now out continue to point in the same favorable direction.

Coach Adam has several able assistants who are helping him to rush his team into form for their first game of the season with Williamson Trade School the last week of September. Coaches Russell Byerly and William Whistler are busy with the first team squad, while James B. Davis and Lyman Suloff are getting the doormats ready for the varsity group to sharpen their cleats on.

Three full teams, with one or two extras for each, make up the first team squad at present, and the way they are marching through their signal drills each afternoon gives rise to the belief that Lower Merion will have another winter of pleasant memories in a football way.

The line will be heavy again this season, averaging about 160 pounds. While nothing has been said publicly about the starting line-up, it is not amiss to guess that the line will be made up of some of the following boys: at left end will be Captain Johnny Pennypacker, a fine football player and leader; Hugh Wynn is likely to start as right end with Jim Bradford as a possibility. Wynn is small, but he makes up for his deficiency by his fierce play. Bradford is rangy and will probably develop into a first-class varsity man. The tackle posts will be guarded by Jim Turner and Horace Latta, while Seaver Rose and Bill Everhart will line up at guard. It looks like Lachman Reinhart has first call at centre, though Hunter Lott, rangy boy from Cynwyd, may get the assignment if he continues to improve. Cason Rucker and Fred Henry are two first-class boys who may break into the lineup on opening day.

The backfield will be lighter this season than last, but man for man will be considerably faster. In Lawrence Carver, Jack Rockwell, Harry Frazer and Herb Thomas, Adam has a quartet of fast, shifty backs, who will give a good account of themselves any day. All four boys can carry the ball to either side with a degree of skill, while Frazer is snappy as a kicker and passer. These four boys get the first call due to their experience, but there are others who will break into the rear guard and do well for the Maroon this season. Harry and Bob Taylor, brothers from Bala, are heavy-duty men as well as fast sprinters. Herb Young is the fastest man on the squad along with Jack Rockwell.

"Time Out"

By Tommy Macklin

Well, boys, here we are! The trout are still biting, but the pocket book is low, hence this sudden rush back to the typewriter.

We arrived just in time to hear everybody signing the blues about the football prospects at Lower Merion this season. No one seems to give the Maroon much show when talking about Suburban Championships this fall.

Well, there are two ways of looking at that situation. Looking due West it seems to me that Lower Merion has copped her share of championships for a while, and if some other school has the man power to come out on top and knock off the red-jerseyed boys temporarily—okch.

From the opposite angle, there's the chance that the Montgomery Avenue boys will do as they have done in previous years. That is, and to wit: lay low and knock 'em down as they come past.

Merionites have a way of coming through in a pinch. But there's no doubt about it, they have to show a lot more this year than their ages and sizes indicate. They are not a veteran team.

Another good point in their favor is that Adam's system remains about the same all the time. He teaches the boys a good defense that is fundamentally sound, and year in and year out his teams will win a majority of their games.

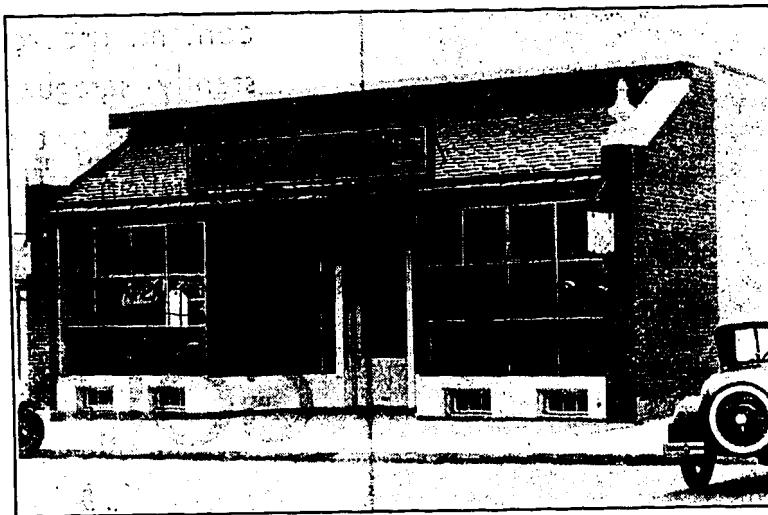

Anyway, boys, we will all know more about it before November heralds the arrival of sweet cider and coon-skin coats.

Coach William Anderson looks hale and hardy after two months of canoeing in the wilds of Canada. Coach Bill is a counselor in a boys' camp during the summer.

Canada is a great place to spend a vacation in anyway. The weather is just right during July and August.

Haverford High has a veteran team ready for footballing this fall. With five lettermen back, and fifteen others who have had considerable experience on the gridiron, it looks like Coach Carnog will step out this year.

Ardmore Indignant Over Bank Attack

Attempt to Start Run on Ardmore Title and Trust on Monday Blocked.

FLURRY IS SOON OVER

The wheels of the gossip factory started running Sunday night, choosing as its victim the Ardmore Title and Trust Company, one of the Main Line's oldest banking institutions. Wild reports spread by excited foreigners soon caused the officers concern.

But what threatened to be a "run" quickly dwindled with the realization that the attack was unfounded. Quick support from the other Ardmore banks also served to restore confidence.

The rumors originated either in an attempt by a frustrated stock gambler to get revenge, or in a deliberate black-mail scheme. Whatever the cause, the attack failed of its purpose.

On Sunday and Monday Ardmore was flooded by copies of a notorious Philadelphia sheet containing an inflated story against the bank. An Ardmore news stand even permitted the sheets to go on sale.

As the papers were circulated rumors followed. On Monday a group of depositors, mostly foreigners with small savings accounts, were awaiting the opening of the doors. The sight of smiling tellers armed with large piles of real money took the wind out of the sails of the alarmists, and the statement that there was plenty more cash where that came from also helped to puncture the scare in prompt fashion.

John W. Phillips, president of the bank, indignant at the scurrilous attack, expressed gratification at the immediate evidence of community confidence. "No bank is immune from an unfounded scare of this kind," he said. "They are disagreeable, but withdrawals are usually promptly redeposited when it is realized that there is nothing behind it."

"We are all pleased at the confidence shown by the responsible people in the community, and at the prompt support of the other banks. It is a tribute to the real solidity of the Main Line."

Volunteers to Gather

There will be a meeting of the Volunteers' Committee of the Main Line Federation of Churches on Monday, September 29, at the Memorial Building, Bryn Mawr, at 3 P. M.

Review Old Testament; to Study Life of Christ

The first meeting of the second season of the Forum was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Arley Farmer, Woodbine and Cleveland Avenues, last Thursday evening. There was a good attendance. Rev. Robert E. Keighton, the leader, reviewed the Old Testament discussions of last year, touching on the important historical and religious points in that long chronicle. Then he sketched most interestingly the important events in the national and religious life of the Jews in the "four silent centuries" which intervened between the close of the Old Testament, as we now know it, and the beginning of the New Testament story.

This talk was preparatory to the consideration of the life of Jesus which had been selected for this season's consideration, and the latter part of the session was devoted to suggestions as to the approach to this subject. Mr. Keighton recommended that the text book for the course be "The Life of Jesus of Nazareth," by Rush Rhees, which he said was "sufficiently near the centre of the road to interfere with traffic going in both directions." He said that he would ask the group to approach the life of Jesus from the literary viewpoint, as history, as a consideration of Jesus as a man, as a psychological study and also in its religious significance.

That seemed to be a formidable program as he outlined it, but there was no sign of abatement of interest on the part of the Forum group. Instead those present wanted to know how soon they could obtain copies of the text book so as to be able to read the first two chapters which have been assigned as a preliminary to the next meeting which will be held at 8 o'clock on the evening of Thursday, October 2, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. C. Custer, of 219 Avon Road. These meetings are open to all who care to attend; nor is it necessary for anyone to use the text book in order to join them and the discussions.

First Checks Arrive to Aid Boy Scout Funds.

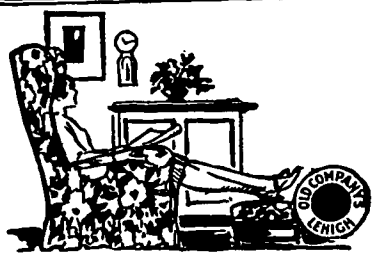

Contributions have commenced trickling into "The Cabin" at Elmwood and Essex Avenues in response to an appeal made last week by Walton M. Wentz, president of the Fathers' Association in charge of Narberth's Boy Scout troop. Hundreds of checks are requested and hoped for, in this first public appeal in years, in order to replenish the exhausted Scout funds.

Those from whom contributions had been gratefully received by Wednesday night were Narberth's Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, Ralph S. Dunne, W. M. Sample, Maurice J. Lacey, William B. Griscom, A. L. Lambert, J. L. McCrery, A. C. Shand, William J. Crossan, C. J. Brunell, Dr. H. F. McDuffee, the Rev. John Van Ness, William C. Claghorn and A. J. Malochleb.

Answering a query "why contribute to the troop when the Boy Scouts are included in the beneficiaries of the Welfare Federation?" Mr. Wentz pointed out this week that the Welfare Federation aids only the county headquarters of the Delaware-Montgomery scouts; expenses of local troops throughout the section are maintained by public-spirited residents of the communities in which they carry on their splendid work.

Winners of a thrilling 4-2 contest last Saturday, the Lower Merion Police ball team will again play the Union Fire Association team of Bala-Cynwyd this Saturday at 3 P. M. at the Cynwyd School grounds, Levering Mill Road and Bryn Mawr Avenue.

The series—best out of three games—is for the police-firemen's championship of Lower Merion and Narberth. The police won the first half season's fray and a cup presented by Fletcher W. Stites, of Narberth. A cup for the second-half winner was presented the Bala-Cynwyd firemen's team by Walter

C. Neely, president of the Union Fire Association. The Ardmore Chamber of Commerce has offered a cup to the victor of the playoff.

Large Burden Placed On Federation of Churches

President Hoover and Mr. Ford state that better times are coming. Are they coming for the Main Line Federation of Churches and for those whom this organization serves, was a question discussed at the meeting of the Finance Committee of the Federation Tuesday afternoon at the Memorial Building.

"When out of employment or ill, people rightly use their savings and all available resources before asking for assistance from anyone," said Miss Alice Ambler, executive secretary. "The Federation of Churches must now advise and assist those suffering from the after effects of debts, undernourishment and mental worry due to past unemployment and, in some cases, to present unemployment."

An unprecedented financial burden has been placed on the organization due to these conditions, Miss Ambler pointed out.
